

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh – Confucius Institute

TAG-Confucius Newsletter | Issue 115 - January 2026

TAG-Confucius Institute:

The Institute was established in September 2008 to introduce the Chinese language and culture, as well as achieving a greater mutual understanding between the Arab and Chinese cultures. This unique initiative is based on the cooperation agreement between TAG.Global and Confucius Institute in China. The Institute has been named after the great intellectual, mentor and philosopher, Confucius, whose ideas had influenced China and other regions around the world for over 2,000 years.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh - Confucius Institute participates in the Conference of Universities in Arab Model Schools in Amman

This participation comes in cooperation with the Office of Arab and International Students at the Deanship of Student Affairs of Arab Model Schools in Amman where students studying at the secondary stage were met and provided with publications about the specializations offered by the university, research and scientific centers at the university, service facilities and infrastructure at the university.

The Deputy Director of the TAG- Confucius Institute Ms. Randa Al Yabroudi and the teachers of TAGCI gave a presentation of the services provided by the Institute, including scholarships to study Chinese Language at Shenyang University, they also gave a presentation on other universities in China in general and their level of evaluation in the worldwide.

The students expressed their interest and admiration for the high educational level of universities in China and expressed their interest in learning the Chinese language because of the importance of this language in the future.

The school administration , stressed that these participations come within the most important social responsibilities of the university and its belief in the importance of its leading role in interacting with the local community and various state institutions.

TAG-Confucius Institute Co-hosts “Chinese Culture Day” at Jadara University

On December 24, TAG-Confucius Institute (TAG-CI), together with the China Cultural Center in Amman (CCCA), co-hosted “Chinese Culture Day” at Jadara University. The event featured keynote lectures, cultural exhibitions and interactive activities, attracting around 150 faculty members and students from the university.

Dr. Shukri Marashdh, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Jadara University, and Dr. Habes Al-Zboon, President of the University, respectively extended a warm welcome to Mr. Zhao Xiaoqiang, Cultural Counsellor of the Chinese Embassy in Jordan and Director of CCCA, and Dr. Yang Songfang, Chinese Director of TAG-CI. The two sides held in-depth and friendly discussions on Chinese language education, cultural exchange and academic cooperation.

The event was then officially launched in the university auditorium. In his remarks, Mr. Zhao Xiaoqiang noted that the Fourth Plenary Session of the 20th Central Committee of the Communist Party of China clearly emphasized that China will continue to expand high-level opening-up, share development opportunities with countries around the world, and foster a new landscape of win-win cooperation. He pointed out that China and Jordan have long enjoyed a solid foundation of cooperation in education, culture, and other fields, and expressed confidence that the two sides will achieve more substantive outcomes in youth talent cultivation and academic and scientific research exchanges in the future.

During the lecture, Dr. Yang Songfang highlighted the achievements and key programs of TAG-CI, including Chinese language teaching, cultural events, HSK Test, scholarships, Summer Camp to China, Educators Delegation to China, “Chinese Bridge” Chinese Proficiency Competition, and the others, attracting strong interest among faculty members and students in attendance. She also patiently addressed questions raised by the students.

Ms. Reem Husein, a partner of CCCA, shared her experiences from the exchange visit to China. Her presentation on China’s achievements in modernization and practical experience in the integrated development of culture and tourism attracted wide attention from faculty members and students present.

At the event venue, the teachers from TAG-CI also presented interactive Chinese cultural activities, including calligraphy, tea ceremony and painting. Under the guidance and demonstrations of TAG-CI teachers, the faculty members and students tried writing their Chinese names with brush and ink, tasting Chinese tea, and appreciating traditional paintings, allowing them to experience firsthand the unique charm of Chinese culture and deepen their understanding of China.

Dr. Luqman Rababah, Director of the Language Center at Jadara University, expressed his gratitude to TAG-CI and CCCA for their strong support for the event. He also looks forward to deepening cooperation with TAG-CI in Chinese language education, providing the university students with more opportunities to learn Chinese language and gain insights into China. Both sides stated that they will maintain ongoing communication and advance relevant cooperation matters.

TAG-Confucius Institute Holds “China Cultural Day” at Al-Balqa Applied University

On December 18, TAG-Confucius Institute (TAG-CI) and China Cultural Center in Amman jointly held “Chinese Culture Day” at Al-Balqa Applied University. The event was attended by Dr. Khaled Al-Zoubi, Vice President of Al-Balqa Applied University; Mr. Zhao Xiaoqiang, Cultural Counselor of the Chinese Embassy in Jordan and Director of China Cultural Center in Amman; Ms. Reem Husein, Consultant for Educational and Cultural Exchange in Jordan; teachers from TAG-CI; as well as more than 190 faculty members and students of the university.

In his opening remarks, Mr. Zhao Xiaoqiang noted that the Fourth Plenary Session of the 20th Central Committee of the Communist Party of China emphasized China's continued commitment to advancing Chinese modernization. He also stated that 2026 will mark the first year of China's 15th Five-Year Plan, and that the second China–Arab States Summit will be held in China. Taking these opportunities as a starting point, China stands ready to further deepen practical cooperation with Al-Balqa Applied University and other Jordanian universities in the fields of Chinese language education and people-to-people and cultural exchanges.

TAG-CI teachers presented a variety of Chinese cultural activities including tea ceremony, calligraphy, paper cutting, and painting, which attracted enthusiastic participation from faculty members and students.

Accompanied by Mr. Zhao Xiaoqiang, Dr. Khaled Al-Zoubi visited the cultural booths and had warm and friendly exchanges with TAG-CI teachers. He sampled Chinese tea, read Chinese names under the guidance of the teachers, enjoyed the art of paper cutting, and appreciated traditional Chinese paintings, all in a lively and cordial atmosphere.

During the event, many students were attracted by the beauty of TAG-CI teachers who appeared in traditional Chinese costumes and eager to take photos with them. Ms. Reem Husein shared her personal experiences from visits to China, highlighting China's achievements in economic and social development as well as the vibrant growth of its cultural and tourism sectors, further enhancing participants' understanding of contemporary China.

This event marked the first time that Chinese culture was introduced to Al-Balqa Applied University. Through diverse and interactive activities, students gained an initial understanding of Chinese culture and demonstrated strong interest. The university expressed its hope to carry out more people-to-people and cultural exchanges and cooperation with TAG-CI in the future.
